EAN CODE

Single cover in silver, narrow for optional installation frame (209281).
Surface-mounted cover, flush with frame and wall. Magnets can be screwed into the panel, not protruding.

The new high-quality aluminum covers have been completely redesigned and are now flush with the installation frame. This provides an almost flush wall finish. The distance between the cover and the touchscreen has been reduced to a minimum, making it easier to operate in the peripheral areas.
