Whether its a balmy date night, a lively birthday party or a cosy Sunday gathering with family, friends or neighbours, barbecuing for every occasion is bang on trend and goes way beyond a humble barbecued sausage. These days, barbecues are used to conjure up whole menus, including delicate flavours such as fish and vegetables. So a lot more emphasis is now placed on preparation, on the cooking process and even on cleaning up afterwards than was previously the case. WMF Barbecue Equipment offers everything you need, from a digital barbecue thermometer with illuminated touch display, through a handy patty maker and the obligatory barbecue tongs to sensible barbecue cleaning utensils. And, of course, they all come in quality materials with a functional yet elegant WMF design.
